LONG LIFE

Is possible only when the blood is pure and vigorous. To expel Scrofula and other poisons from the circulation, the superior medicine is AYER'S Sarsaparilla. It imparts permanent strength and efficiency to every organ of the body. Restoration to perfect health and strength

Results from Using

AYER'S Sarsaparilla. Mary Schubert, Kansas City, Mo., writes:

"I am convinced that after having been sick a whole year from liver complaint, Ayer's Sarsaparilla saved my life. The best physicians being unable to help me, and having tried three other proprietary medicines without benefit, I at last took Ayer's Sarsaparilla. The result was a complete cure. Since then I have recommended this medicine to others, and always with success."

R. Drum.

WANTED—Fifty teams to haul lumber to our mills.

FREDERICKTOWN LUMBER CO.

- Will Drum spent a few days last week in New Madrid. He was best man at the marriage of his friend, Tom Allen.

- Men's, Youth's, Boy's and Children's suits by the wholesale at Drum's.

- Mrs. J. C. Lescher died at Sikeston, Mo. Nov. 14th. and was buried in the Marble Hill Cemetery Nov. 15th. 1892.

- Woolen blankets and comforts at Drum's by the wagon load, from the cheapest to the best.

- Recently, an engine on the Philadelphia and Reading rail road exploded, killing five men and fatally injuring another.

- Young married people, go to Drum's for your furniture. He has just received a carload and will sell cheaper than ever.

- Some godless thief has stolen the wedding clothes and even the bed of the Rev. D. T. Simmons of Jasper county, Mo.

- Ladies' now is the time for you to make a good selection of fancy notions and dress goods at Drum's as his stock is complete.

- An Eastern paper says "the laborer may be worthy of his hire and yet not be able to persuade his employer that it should be higher hire."

- Ladies now is the time for you to go to Drum's to make your selection of Coats and Jackets for winter wear.

- In compliance with a petition of the citizens of Marble Hill, Mo. the County Court on Monday incorporated our town.

The following is the Town Board appointed by the Court: Louis Mayer, W. H. Boss, John R. Welch, August Bohnsack and Thomas Teeters. Tuesday evening the Board met and elected Louis Mayer President, John R. Welch Town Clerk, and August Bohnsack Treasurer.

- Gent's and ladies' shoes at Drum's, from the cheapest to the best. Come and examine my goods and learn my prices before purchasing elsewhere.

- There is danger in a too vigorous sneeze. A workman in a factory in South Bend, Ind., dislocated his shoulder the other day by sneezing too violently.

- It has always been a rule in this office not to publish anything which did not bear the writer's full name. We repeat that this rule must be observed.

- According to the Louisiana Press, both parties in their final rallies in that town the night before election "covered themselves with glory and gasoline."

- Keytesville, Mo. has a "lightning bone setter," who maintains that most diseases are caused by loose bones rattling around in the human frame.

- The largest line (and the acknowledged best) of gent's neck wear at Drum's ever brought to Bollinger County. Young men, come and make a selection while the stock is full.

- See what a mania and a little industry will do. A Portland, Me., woman, who has a mania for cancelled postage stamps has over a million of them.

- The Mexico, Mo. Ledger estimates that seventy five or 100 voters in Audrain county lost their votes from not knowing how to mark their ballots correctly.

- The cornerstone of the Confederate home at Higginsville, Mo. was laid Tuesday, November 15th. Senator Vest and other prominent Confederates took part in the exercises.

- Here is an example of patience and industry: A woman in Georgia who is not 20 years of age has made, up to date, 471 quilts, twenty-seven of which were made during the year.

- Be modest, as modest as you can anyway, and remember that the old remark is true: "You can't step up in the affections of a fine young lady by way of stony stairs."

- There is one great trouble in life—the excess of things brings serious consequences. As Puck says, the trouble is that you never know when you've got enough until you've got too much.

- It is complained that the greater number of women in the country who have nowhere else to go, strike out for Springfield, Mo. where they become a burden to public and private charity.

- The pathetic story is that the mother of Charlie Ross still lives, a sorrow-stricken woman, whose beautiful hair has been prematurely whitened by her great grief, but who still hopes on with a mother's endless love and faith.

- There will be a mission at Leopold the coming week. Two missionaries will be in attendance. Services will be held at 8 a. m., 10 a. m. and 3 o'clock p. m. At the 10 o'clock service each day in the week the sermon will be delivered in English. All are cordially invited.

- The Jefferson City Tribune is grieved to note that "corporate wealth is gaining control of the mineral resources of the state. The best mineral lands in Southeast Missouri are now absolutely in control of a few corporations, and landowners along the Osage valley are falling into the same trap and relinquishing rights which they should retain as long as they own the land."

- The eagerness with which the ladies have sought and bought Mrs. Jaques' millinery and furnishing goods is proof that her prices as well as goods are popular. Don't miss seeing her new goods. Eight per cent. taken off every hat bought before Dec. 15th.

- This nation has been giving out patent for a long time. The first patent in the United States was issued July 31, 1790, to Samuel Hopkins for making pot and pearl ashes. Four hundred and thirty three thousand four hundred and thirty-six patents were issued during the first 100 years of the patent office.

- Here's a decision which will cause flurry in matrimonial circles. It has been decided that women can wear trousers whenever and whenever they please in Missouri. Some people will be cruel enough to remark that the judge is a married man and is used to that state of affairs.—Ex.

- Think of this, ye men who think women are incapable of making a living: There are today more than 200,000 women in the United States earning a living by professional and personal service outside that of mechanical labor or work in the shops, in the practice of law and medicine, the teaching of music and art, literature and science, and in clerical work of different kinds in government and other official places.

- Our esteemed friend, Harry McCans has voluntarily quit our employment, and will enter school at the M. S. Academy for the present term. Harry has made for himself a reputation as a sober, honest and industrious young man. He is well liked by all our people. He has by his steady industrious habits and sterling honesty shown himself worthy of our confidence and esteem. He is proficient with the "stick and rule" and is an honor to the craft.

- It's the most amusing spectacle when a subscriber for some fancied or implied wrong in a newspaper item, flies to the office settles the bill, stops the paper, and then struts out as though he had driven the last nail in the coffin of the paper's success, and the whole outfit was only waiting for the undertaker or the sheriff to put it forward out of sight. These people do not understand, where one of them drops off, because of an item: twenty catch on because it pleases them.—Ex.

Respectfully, H. W. Boss.

Girl's Party Platform.

As these columns have contained no politics of interest to the girls for a few issues, we reproduce the platform of the Kansas City girl's party, which was adopted at a recent meeting.

The man who takes the red, red wine,
Can never glue his lips to mine,
The man who chews the ratty plug,
Will in our parlor get no hug,
Who smokes, or drinks, or cuts a deck,
Shall never, never bite my neck,
Don't monkey with the cards,
Or we can nevermore be parls.

The man who guggles lager beer,
Can never, never bite my ear,
Drink nothing stronger than red pop,
Or in your lap I'll never flop,
If aught but water e'er you taste,
Just keep your hand from off my waist,
If you drink wine or other slop,
You never can hear my corset pop.

The man who smokes the cigarette,
Can never squeeze me you can bet,
The man who snubs the fiery glass,
Can feast upon my garden sars.
